ABOUT ME

Junior Full Stack Web Developer

I have a genuine passion for web applications. I started my training at ITS Digital Academy, where I built foundations in JavaScript, Node.js, Python and Java — a full overview of the programme is available in the Education section. I am actively seeking my first internship opportunity to put my skills into practice and bring energy and commitment to a team.

WORK EXPERIENCE

 – Treviso, Italy

Barista

[11/01/2024 – Current]

A role very different from my career path, but one that strengthened key soft skills: teamwork, independence, working under pressure, precision, responsibility, and learning from more experienced colleagues.
